A Concern From Your Editor:

I have been publishing the Alumni version of the Orange & Black for a little over 5 years now and growing from that experience I have a concern that some of the totals for some of the above deceased lists are short of what the actual deceased numbers probably are. I regret to say this, but I suspect that if the number of deceased classmates for your class is less than 120 the list is far from accurate and complete.

I truly hope I am wrong about this, but if I am not, then we all need to do more work in reviewing each list and notifying the O&B of the additions that need to be made.

The Orange & Black Obituary & Special Edition Policy:

1 The obituary policy of the Orange & Black is to publish a "Special Edition" that will include the full obituary of all deceased classmates from WHS class years of 1950 to 1959 only when that Special Edition can be Emailed to O&B subscribers prior to the date of the deceased classmate's funeral or memorial service. The deceased's name will also be added to the 'Master Deceased List' for their class year.

2 When it is not possible to publish a "Special Edition" with a classmate's obituary prior to the date of their funeral, their name will instead just be added to the 'Master Deceased List' for their class. All ten updated class deceased lists will be published twice a year, on Memorial Day and at Christmas.

3 To assist the O&B in meeting the time deadline, your help is needed to advise the O&B of a classmate's passing as quickly as possible.

Jack M. Phillips '54, editor. jack@jackmphilips.com
